LIABILITY WAIVER

On behalf of myself and the player being registered, I recognize that baseball entails serious risks. Consequently, except as noted below, I and the player being registered relinquish all rights to a claim of any kind, including the right to a claim for bodily and material damages, regardless of the cause, against the OASA, its member associations, including Coldwater and their respective officers, employees, coaches, umpires, assignees, agents, representatives, and sponsors, even if such damages result from negligence of the OASA, its member associations, including Coldwater and their respective officers, employees, coaches, umpires, assignees, agents, representatives, and sponsors. Without restricting the generality of the preceding, I and the player being registered also relinquish the right to any claim against the OASA, its member associations, including Coldwater and their respective officers, employees, coaches, umpires, assignees, agents, representatives, and sponsors resulting from a decision on their part, regardless of the nature of this decision. This release of the OASA, Coldwater and the other persons noted above does not preclude myself or the player being registered from making a claim under any sports accident coverage provided by the OASA and/or Coldwater to their players. An overview of the current sports accident coverage provided by OASA can be found at oasa.ca.
